

DEVIZES CHEESECAKES

Devizes has long been famous for its cheesecakes.

When Jane Austen stayed at The Bear Hotel, Devizes, in 1799 she wrote to her sister Cassandra, 'We had some cheesecakes, on which the children made so delightful a supper as to endear the town of Devizes to them for a long time.'

Bakers in Devizes have made their own versions of the cheesecakes over the years but the best known is the Devizes Cheesecake, made for 150 years by Strong's bakers, at the Phoenix Café in the Brittox and later at The Original Cheesecake Café in the Market Place. Sadly, the Strong's cafés are no more – the last one closed in the mid-1990s - but it is still possible to try Devizes Cheesecake in the town - Visit Dolcipani Bakery
